Proposed Uniform Tribal Gaming Regulation CGCC-7. Emergency Evacuation and Preparedness Plans

- (a) For the purpose of ensuring the physical safety of gaming operation patrons and employees, and any other person while in the gaming facility pursuant to Compact section 8.1.2, the Tribal Gaming Agency shall require development and implementation of an Emergency Evacuation and Preparedness Plan (“Plan”) for the tribal gaming facility, no later than August 1, 2003, to include but not be limited to the following emergencies:

- (1) Fires
- (2) Earthquakes, Floods and Other Natural Disasters
- (3) Bomb Threats
- (4) Hazardous Spills or Toxic Exposure
- (5) Other critical incidents, as determined by the Tribal Gaming Agency
- (6) Provisions for First Aid and for Obtaining Emergency Medical Assistance for patrons, employees, and other persons while in the Gaming Facility.

(b) Each Plan shall include the following:

- (1) Clear, written policies listing ~~names and~~ the job titles of the personnel who are responsible for making decisions, monitoring emergency response actions, and securing or protecting the gaming operation's cash or equivalent assets and records.
- (2) Procedures addressing each of the items in subsection (a)(1) to (6), inclusive.
- (3) Facility evacuation procedures, including a designated meeting site or sites outside the facility, ~~and a process to account for patrons and~~ employees after an evacuation, and a process to ensure that all patrons have been evacuated.
- (4) Specific training and practice schedules.

(c) The Tribal Gaming Agency shall provide a copy of the Plan to the Division of Gambling Control in the California Department of Justice within 30 days following adoption or amendment of the Plan. If a plan conforming to this regulation was adopted prior to the effective date of this regulation, the Tribal Gaming Agency shall provide a copy of that Plan to the Division of Gambling Control on or before June 1, 2003.

(d) The Tribal Gaming Agency shall require that gaming operation management:

- (1) At least annually, review with all employees the requirements of the Plan ~~with all employees~~ applicable to the employee, to ensure that each employee has a general understanding of the provisions of the Plan applicable to his or her position and understands his or her specific duties under the Plan and the appropriate exit or exits to be used, where applicable.
- (2) Review the requirements of the Plan with each new employee, at the time the new employee begins work, to ensure that each new employee has a general understanding of the provisions of the Plan applicable to his or her position and understands his or her specific duties under the Plan and the appropriate exit or exits to be used, where applicable.
